Citizens Must Ballot on Underpass Project

Much Work Ahead Before Improvement Could be Voted Upon

BOROUGH AID SOLICITED

Narberth Civic Committee Will Organize on Sunday

Narberth's "Committee on Public Improvements," recently appointed by Burgess John R. Hall to discuss proposed borough projects and to make recommendations to Council, will meet Sunday afternoon at the home of Frank A. Schrepfer, 315 Grayling avenue, to effect an organization and elect a chairman.

Committee members are T. Noel Butler, John J. Cabrey, Robert C. Collins, Ralph S. Dunne, Walter A. Fox, Mr. Schrepfer and Dr. O. J. Snyder.

A long procedure necessary before a bond issue to finance the borough's share of the proposed Essex avenue tunnel under the Pennsylvania Railroad can be voted on by Narberth citizens, was pointed out Monday night at Narberth Council meeting by borough officers in response to a verbal petition made for the project by Postmaster Joseph L. Kelley and a delegation from the Narberth Business Council.

In behalf of the project spokesmen, besides Kelley, included Roy Gowland, president of the business men, Howard F. Cotter, and James D. Gowland. They pointed out the tunnel would improve local trade conditions and also would be a convenience to residents in expediting traffic. Magistrate Joseph Magarity also was present.

While cost estimates ranged from $90,000 to $120,000, Mr. Kelley said 80 per cent of the amount needed was available as a grant from the WPA, and that if Narberth did not get its share of Montgomery County's appropriation the money would be spent elsewhere.

In the informal discussion Robert F. Wood, chairman of the borough's Street and Road Improvements Committee, said that Narberth primarily was a residential community and that not all the residents would favor more traffic through the borough. He also said that obtaining the railroad's co-operation would be the greatest snag as the Pennsylvania does not like to have its right-of-way disturbed, and recommended that Mr.

Police Force Addition Approved by Council

Officer to be Added and New Automobile and Signs Purchased

1936 TAXES 80 PER CENT IN

An ordinance was passed on first reading Monday night by Narberth Council authorizing the addition of a patrolman, bringing the borough's police force up to a sergeant and four officers.

About a dozen applicants for the post will be interviewed sometime this week-end by the Public Safety Committee, William H. Durbin, chairman. Council will then be asked to approve the group's selection.

Council also approved purchase of a Chevrolet standard two-door sedan, 1937 model, from the Kirsch Chevrolet Company, Bala-Cynwyd, at a cost of $240 plus the turn-in value of the borough's 1935 Plymouth two-door sedan, valued at $407. Necessary equipment for police work will be bought for the car.

Traffic control signs not to exceed $210 were also authorized.

Edwin P. Dold, tax collector, reported that 1936 borough property taxes are approximately 80 per cent collected. A balance of only $16,649.75 remains to be collected of a total duplicate of $80,044.72, despite the fact that installment payments are permitted.

A letter from the County Board of Assessment and Revision of Taxes was read saying that a re-hearing has been granted to Robert J. Nash on his appeal for a reduction in assessment of $7000 each on the properties owned by him at 231 and 233 Haverford avenue, Narberth. Council authorized the secretary to communicate with the Borough Real Estate Assessor and suggest that the assessment of these properties be defended.

The re-hearing is scheduled for 11.30 A. M., February 15, at Norristown.

High School To Present Two Casts In Lead Roles of "Patience" 18 & 20

In the cast for Lower Merion High School's production of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Patience," February 18 and 20, will be several performers who starred in the previous production of the "Pirates of Penzance." With an exceptionally large array of talent available, it has been found necessary to double-cast several of the roles. Lady Jane will be played by Gertrude Gerenbeck and Sally Mills. The title role will be shared by Lillian Allen and Jeanne Hare.

Heading the male principals will be Harold Donnelly and Ronald Paige as Bunthorne and Grosvenor, respectively. Robert Ritchings and Don Lynch will portray Colonel Calverley of the Dragoon Guards. Louis Rinehart, who will be remembered as the modern major-general in the "Pirates," will take the role of the Duke. The Major will be portrayed by Albert Turner.

Lady Saphir will be played by Connie Smith and Lucille Miller. Marilyn Swartz and Beatrice Brown

Linda of "Holiday"

CECILIA LINK

of Merion Park, who plays the leading role in Philip Barry's "Holiday" to be given by the Narberth Players this Friday and Saturday evenings in the Narberth Public School.

Players Tonight Give Park Avenue Romance

"Holiday" Also Will be Repeated Saturday at 8.30 P. M.

Brothers and sisters, take a hint, this might happen to you! When Philip Barry wrote "Holiday" and the love story of the two sisters, Linda and Julia, he never knew that the Narberth Players would adopt his three-act comedy as their third production of the 1937 season.

Barry will not see the Players' performance tonight and tomorrow, but that won't stop Elizabeth Lynch, Cecilia Link and William Dougherty from putting on a Park avenue romance that will leave the audiences with dry throats and sore sides.

In addition to the playful, plotting, love-happy triangle which the three stars have built, there will be a rollicking new version of the brother and sister act, Marion and Art McViekar, as husband and wife. Robert Estes takes the role of the darling downcast brother who has found liquid relief from the boredom of his father's huge bankroll.

It's hardly fair to speak of the Midas-father without telling you that George Werner will make another of his lasting characterizations as Papa Seton. Two newcomers to the stage complete the regal family, Bessie McAllister and Richard Gable.

With a plot set right in the midst of New York's idle rich, the scenery

Library Will Sponsor Lecture on Literature

Association Approves First of Five-Point Program of President

STAFF GIVEN INCREASE

A prominent author or literary critic is to lecture in Narberth under the auspices of the Narberth Library Association.

Plans for the lecture were approved Tuesday evening by the library's Board of Trustees.

Robert Moore Cameron was named chairman of a committee to engage the lecturer and, in consultation with the president, the Rev. Robert E. Keighton will select the other members of his group.

The lecture is the first of a five-point plan of the president to be approved by the trustees. The other four points are being considered for future action. They are: (a) An education plan to stress other cultural functions of the library besides the circulation of books; (b) building up of the reference and research departments; (c) abolishment of rentals of any book as soon as feasible, making all books free, and (d) utilization of specialized abilities of member-readers for the benefit of the library on a volunteer basis.

Salary increases of $180 each yearly were given to Miss Clara Follette, librarian, who now receives $1330, and to Miss Ingeborg Thaysen, assistant librarian, whose salary is now $780. This was made possible by borough Council's action in taking over the frozen assets of the Library Association in the closed Merion Title and Trust Company and old Narberth National Bank and then increasing the library appropriation this year by $900. The funds remaining of that amount are to be left in a savings fund to be used gradually in an expansion of service to the community. Rev. Keighton presided at the meeting.

Council Gives Library $900 More for Year

Frozen Deposits of Association Taken Over by Borough

On recommendation of Clarence Kaeber, borough finance chairman and also recently elected vice-president of the Narberth Library Association, Narberth Borough Monday night assumed the association's frozen assets in two closed banks and increased the library's 1937 appropriation by $900, but not before pertinent questions were asked Mr. Kaeber by fellow council members.

The assets taken over are $825.33 deposited in the defunct Merion Title and Trust Company and $127.43 deposited in the old Narberth National Bank. The viva voce vote on this measure and also the vote on increasing the library's appropriation from $2000 to $2900 were without dissent. Prior to the vote, however, William H. Durbin, chairman of the Public Safety Committee, asked why the Library Association should have this amount of $952.76 on deposit, when the borough was obliged to carefully curtail its surpluses in order to keep the tax rate low.

Harvey Harman, Building Committee chairman, asked why the library should have immediate need of an additional $900 for shelving, books, etc.

The action taken was at the request of the Library Association in a letter signed by May T. Drew, its secretary, which stated that the library was upholding its standards and increasing its public service on extremely limited resources.

Missing Since Saturday

Sarah Stewart, 19, has been missing from her home in Narberth nearly a week, according to Lower Merion police.

The girl, who was employed by Mrs. J. R. Stam, of 117 Elmwood avenue, left the house at 8.30 last Saturday night with a young man. She has not been heard from since then.

In a "B" League game last Thursday night at the Penn Wynne School Narberth just barely turned back a threat of the Haverford Celtics, 35-34. Eck Burgess scored 10 points, while McGarry accounted for 9.

Consultants Would Strengthen Public Improvements Committee

With playground improvements, a proposed new postoffice building and the Essex avenue tunnel project looming in the borough's public eye, Burgess John R. Hall has seized an appropriate moment to name a committee of independent citizens to investigate and "to submit to the taxpayers for approval or rejection, through the ballot or otherwise, projects involving large expenditures of public funds."

The men chosen, Messrs. Butler, Cabrey, Collins, Dunne, Fox, Schrepfer and Dr. Snyder, certainly represent men of action and also of independent thought who have the best interests of the community at heart.

However might Our Town point out that with the definite exception of Frank A. Schrepfer, landscape architect and planning expert, they are of the business executive type. Excellent from the standpoint of supervision, but lacking in the specialized knowledge necessary for thorough consideration of improvements that entail major and minor changes of the town's topography.

The suggestion is made that a consulting group be named either by the burgess or by the chairman of the Public Improvements Committee to supplement the latter's efforts. The consultants should include an artist, an architect, a civil engineer and at least one member acquainted with the problems of railroads.

Alice Barr

Funeral services for Miss Alice Barr will be held this Friday afternoon at 2:30 from her late residence, 103 Woodbine avenue, Narberth, followed by interment in West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

Miss Barr, who was 67, suffered a stroke Tuesday morning and died that evening.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Barr, pioneers in the development of Cynwyd and who helped found the Presbyterian Church of the Covenant of Bala-Cynwyd.

An active worker at various periods in the Presbyterian Churches of Bala-Cynwyd, Narberth, Ardmore and Overbrook, Miss Barr was a member of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Hahnemann Hospital. She had lived in Narberth since 1924, moving there from Cynwyd.

She is survived by her sister, Miss Emma Barr, with whom she made her home; a brother, George W. Barr, of Villanova, and by four nephews and two nieces.

Valentine Concert 13th

Miss Margaret Squier will present her pupils in a mid-winter concert this Saturday at 3 P. M. in the Lutheran Church parlors, Narberth and Woodbine avenues.

The children have decided to add to the festive feeling of the season by dressing in Valentine costumes.

The public is cordially invited.

W. C. T. U. Meeting Monday

Final rites were held Tuesday morning, for Ernest A. Henry, Jr., 49, of 116 Birch avenue, Bala, who died at his home Saturday.

FIRE CALLS

Narberth Fire Company: February 4, 6:10 P. M. Field fire, Quinn's field, Wynnewood avenue. February 7, 3 P. M. Small building at Oak and Anthwyn roads, Merion. Little value.

The tremendous power that remained latent for so long this season in the Lower Merion basketball team has been showing itself in increasing tempo for the past two weeks. Tuesday night at Ardmore it reached a crescendo when Bill Anderson unleashed that power against Abington in the second meeting of these two teams this winter. The final verdict was a 49-to-9 whipping handed out to the visitors that must have left them amazed and bewildered. Griffiths, Ramsey, Beck, Viguers, Hentosh and Hammonds led the scoring in this smashing victory that gave real evidence of the team's right to be perched on the top rung of the championship ladder.

Last Friday night Coach Bill's lads defeated a stubborn Radnor five on the floor at Wayne. This was a difficult assignment, due not to the unusual ability of the Radnor boys, but a combination of small floor and zone defense, which discourages the scoring inclinations of almost any ball club. The Aces had what it takes, however, and the 25-to-18 defeat rubbed out the biggest threat left on the schedule of the league leaders. Haverford and Norristown, both to be played away, will be a little more difficult than they were in the first meetings, but should not offer opposition that is insurmountable.

Anderson's move in putting Viguers at center and the elongated Ramsey at forward has been the best tactical move he has made this season. The combined height of these two lads working in unison under the home basket keeps the ball in a safe position during most of the ball game. Clarence Griffiths has added a dash and fire to the team that was utterly lacking during the early games of the season. Right now Lower Merion has a basketball team that ranks with the best the school has ever had, and with a little encouragement should go far in the coming state tournament.

The Lower Merion Junior High team won the eleventh victory out of twelve starts on Tuesday when they defeated Radnor Junior High on the latter's floor, 22 to 10. The entire team gave a good performance, outscoring the Wayne boys, 11 goals to 3, from the floor.

Scouts Address Rotary; Club Sponsors Contest

Members of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club at Tuesday's luncheon were addressed by these scout leaders: Eagle Scout Donald Love, of Wynnewood Troop No. 1 and his scoutmaster, Isaac B. Knoll; Russell H. Moll, of Norristown, quartermaster of Camp Delmont; Frank H. Seely, Jr., scoutmaster of Bala-Cynwyd Troop No. 2, who was also chairman of the meeting.

Purchase by the Rotary Club of duplicate sets of merit badge pamphlets was announced, which were turned over to Scout Love to deliver, one set to the Bala-Cynwyd Library and the other to the Narberth Library, for use of scouts.

The club is sponsoring a window-dressing contest this week for troops in Narberth and Bala-Cynwyd. James P. Carroll and Lieutenant Walter Brown were appointed to a committee to act as judges of the windows.
